

Notes on Authors

MARIA CRISTINA MOLINARI is Keeper of the Department of Coins and Medals of the Capitoline Museums (Rome) and Adjunct Professor at the Dipartimento di Studi Umanistici (Dept. of Humanities) of the Università degli Studi Roma Tre.

MARTA BARBATO – BA degree at the Università degli Studi ‘Roma Tre’ and MA in Archaeology at the Università “La Sapienza” di Roma with a thesis in Ancient Numismatics. She has also earned a post-graduate diploma at the ‘Scuola di Specializzazione in Beni Archeologici’ of the Università “La Sapienza” di Roma. She works full time as museum assistant at the Museo Nazionale Romano (Palazzo Massimo, Rome) with a permanent contract. At present, she is enrolled as PhD student at the University of Warwick (UK).

FABIANA LANNA – BA degree at the Università degli Studi ‘Roma Tre’ and MA in Archaeology at the Università “La Sapienza” di Roma with a thesis in Ancient Numismatics. She works with a temporary contract on the database project “Iuno Moneta” at the Poligrafico e Zecca dello Stato.

DANIELA WILLIAMS – MA in Ancient Numismatics at the University of Roma Tre and doctorate in Ancient History at the University of Tor Vergata (Rome). She is post-doc researcher at the Institute for the Study of Ancient Culture (Division Documenta Antiqua – Numismatics) at the Austrian Academy of Sciences in Vienna.