

CALL FOR PAPERS
THE INTERPRETERS' NEWSLETTER
ISSUE 29 (2024)

Editors: Simo Määttä (University of Helsinki) and Marc Orlando (Macquarie University)

Issue 29 of The Interpreters' Newsletter welcomes submissions that contribute to describing the interpreting activity in all the situational contexts in which it is required, by using either traditional or innovative analytical methodologies.

Topics of interest for Issue 29/2024

Topics of interest include but are not limited to the following areas:

- The impact of societal changes on interpreting
- Interpreting didactics and training
- Interpreting ethics
- The role(s) and agency of interpreters
- Discourse analytical approaches to interpreting
- Corpus-based interpreting studies
- Interpreting and cognition
- Interpreting and technology advances in an AI era
- Distance/Remote interpreting practices and developments

Practical information and deadlines

Papers must be submitted in English or French (thoroughly proofread if authors are not native speakers of these languages) and describe original research which is neither published nor currently under review by other journals or conferences. Submitted manuscripts will be subject to a process of double-blind peer review.

Authors must follow the guidelines and the style sheet before submission: They are available at: <https://www.openstarts.units.it/communities/36bbf0cb-888b-4f2a-aa4f-7d4f10ee3601>.

Manuscripts should be between 6,000 and 7,500 words long, including references, abstract (150-200 words) and keywords (5-10) and should be sent as Word attachments to: interpretersnewsletter@units.it. Email subject: NL29 PAPER; File Name: author's name_NL29.

Manuscript submission:	30 th March 2024
Results of peer-reviewing process:	30 th June 2024
Publication:	December 2024